A Strong Foundation

Tod Minnich, Honeywell Foundation CEO

I have the privilege of leading the Honeywell Foundation. In my 15 years in this role, I have witnessed this organization grow and flourish in ways I could not have imagined when I started this journey in 2003.

There are many reasons why this growth has happened. Certainly, I credit the leadership of our Board of Directors. The vision, foresight, and generosity of those who serve and have served on the Honeywell Foundation Board are unmatched. In addition, dedicated, innovative staff members work hard every day serving the mission of the Foundation. In the end, however, it is only because of the generosity of our donors that the Foundation can truly succeed.

The Annual Report recognizes those who cared so much for the Foundation's work that they gave of their hard-earned resources to support it. "Thank you" is never enough, but please know how much your kindness is appreciated – not just by me, but also by our board, our staff and the thousands of others who benefit from Honeywell Foundation programs each year.

All Things Honeywell

Dave Haist, Honeywell Foundation Board of Trustees Chair

What's in a name? Well, if the name is "Honeywell" then it is a name with quite a history. For many around the world, Honeywell resonates as the name of a Fortune 500 company; but for those of us in Northeast Indiana, what comes to mind is the namesake of that company, Mark Honeywell. Mark Honeywell left an amazing legacy that we continue to enjoy today.

Through his generosity, the Honeywell Foundation was created and the Honeywell Center was built. He built a tradition of providing remarkable opportunities for residents of this region to experience arts and culture. This tradition has not only carried on but greatly expanded. Each year, the Honeywell Foundation welcomes more than 280,000 patrons to experience its programs and events. That number includes the nearly 50,000 opportunities afforded to students through the Educational Outreach Program. Mark Honeywell would be especially pleased knowing how the Honeywell Foundation has continued to serve youth over the years.

We are thrilled that the Foundation started by Mark Honeywell continues to thrive today. This publication illustrates why this is possible. Mark Honeywell may have started the tradition, but our donors past and present (more than 1,000 annual donors are listed in this annual report) are the ones who keep it alive. Thank you believing in the Honeywell Foundation. We know Mark would be proud.

The Honeywell Foundation operates six venues: the Honeywell Center, Honeywell House, Eagles Theatre, the 13-24 Drive In, Charley Creek Gardens and the Dr. Ford Historic Home. During 2017, more than 280,000 people were served at these venues by the many programs and events that were offered.

Gifts to The Honeywell Foundation

These generous gifts benefit all aspects and offerings of the organization including programming, venue maintenance, and operational expenses.

Gifts to Specific Venues or Programs

Our supporters often have a special place in their heart for certain programs and venues. Gifts can be tailored to benefit these special areas and reflect our donors fond memories.

Eagles Renovation Project

The Eagles Theatre has been a main attraction in Wabash for 111 years. For most of that time the theater changed very little. In September of 2017, a complete renovation project began to breathe new life in the well-worn building. Soon Eagles Theatre will be up and running again. Many thanks to all who contributed to this campaign in 2017!

Wabash Valley Music Association

Did you know that not only does the Wabash Valley Music Association present Broadway shows at the Honeywell Center; it also provides arts experiences for the youth of Wabash County? Students can attend the Annual Youth Concert, performed by a symphonic orchestra; or they can participate in the annual Honors Band & Choir concert, comprised of the most talented band and choir members from Wabash County. Thank you to all WVMA Angels donors for helping these events to take place!
