We can't thank you enough.

2020 presented some of the greatest challenges The Honeywell Foundation has ever faced. When live events and large gatherings halted across the world, your faithful support enabled us to continue operating and not only survive but innovate and grow. Donor support has always played an integral role in our organization, but for 2020, your generous giving is what brought us through to the other side. When you see Honeywell's accomplishments now and in the future, our sincerest hope is that you realize the foundational role you played in this success story.

Here's a glimpse of how Honeywell innovated in 2020...

- We completed renovations of the historic Eagles Theatre, creating new opportunities for entertainment, events, and education. Eagles' cutting-edge production studios paved the way for engaging virtual programming that enabled us to continue operating our Educational Outreach Program and host a variety of online events.
- Live outdoor concerts were added to our offerings at the 13-24 Drive In, along with our usual family-friendly movies. In total, we hosted 45 events and 29,111 guests at the Drive In.
- We introduced Take & Bake Dinners and hosted socially distanced dining events at Eugenia's Restaurant, Eagles Theatre, and the Honeywell House.
- We planned for the launch of Honeywell Arts Academy (an expansion of Wabass Institute), which will provide unique full scholarship opportunities for professionally pathed pianists, double bassists, and innovative musicians from around the world. The program will debut in June, 2021.
- We announced a new brand that represents The Honeywell Foundation's six properties and wide spectrum of programs and events: Honeywell Arts & Entertainment. With this, we launched a new website that provides visitors access to all Honeywell has to offer in one central hub.

As we reflect on the past year, we are overwhelmed with gratitude. We will always appreciate the ways our board, staff, supporters, and community came together to ensure the future of arts and entertainment. In the midst of uncertainty, our mission continued – and so did your support. Together we brought joy, enrichment, and connection when it was needed most.

Your faithful support has shown that art was, is, and will always be an important part of our world. From all of us at The Honeywell Foundation, thank you. We will take these seeds that sprouted in adversity and use them to continue growing our work in Northeast Indiana and beyond.

 Honeywell Foundation Chair
